EXTRACTS. THE ROCK OF AINDAH. Aindah! Hoe the blackening waves advance Against the shore, like armies to the fray, Thou break in silvery clouds, while minbows dance In the long linds of diamoneded spray! They strike, they break, they die on the ingoon; Like stranded whales, their long triumphant swell Now hides the prestrate shore; retreating soon, They leave the pearl, the coral and the shall. No, youthful bard, will Passion's surges roll. On thy young heart: but do thou seize the lyre, And wake the soul of music; at her hymn The threatening floods will suddenly retire, And on the strand of thy delivered soul Leave sough whose splendors never shall be dim.
